

Recommended Reading List for Year 6

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

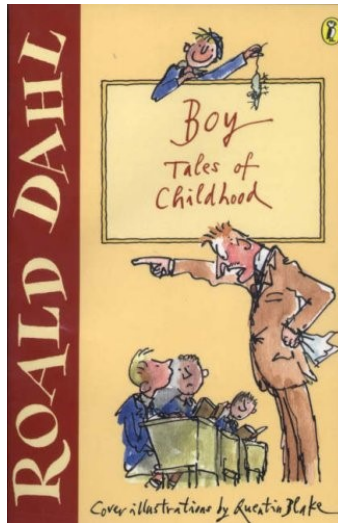

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in year 6...

The Secret of Spiggy Holes - Enid Blyton

Goodnight Mr Tom - Michelle Magorian

Boy - Roald Dahl

The Boy at the Back of the Class - Onjali Q. Rauf

A Christmas Carol - Charles Dickens

Children of Winter - Berlie Doherty

Northern Lights - Phillip Pullman

Oranges in No Man's Land - Elizabeth Laird

Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry - Mildred D Taylor

There's a Boy in the Girl's Bathroom - Louis Sachar

Tom's Midnight Garden - Philippa Pearce

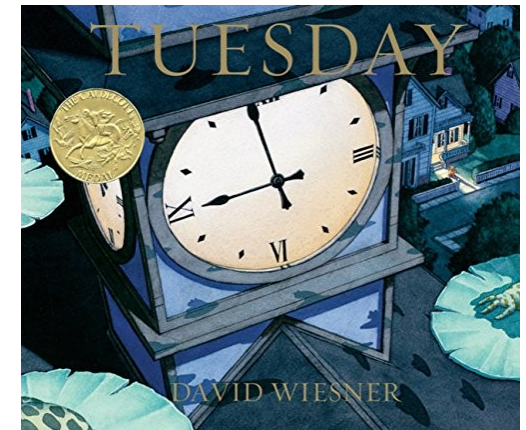

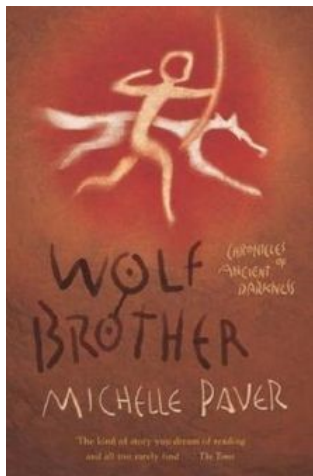

Tuesday - David Wiesner

The Proudest Blue - Ibtihaj Muhammad

The Houdini Box - Brian Seiznick

Wonder - R J Palacio

Trash - Andy Mulligan

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

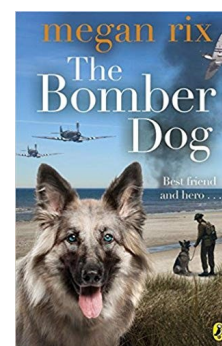

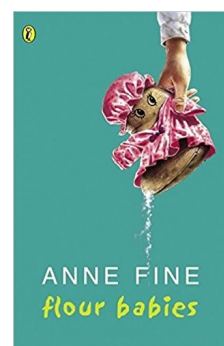

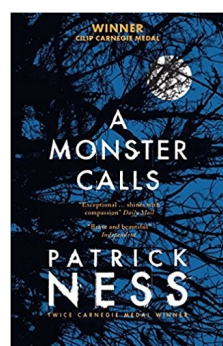

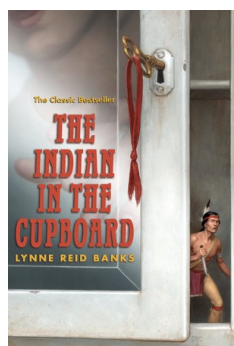

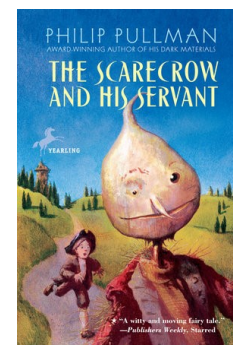

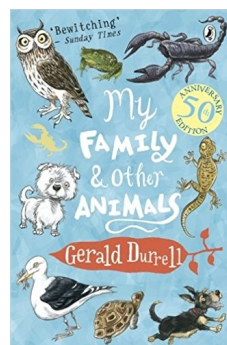

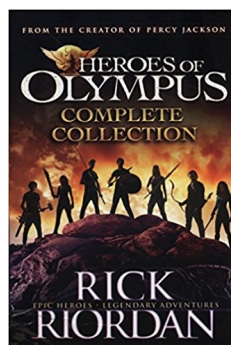

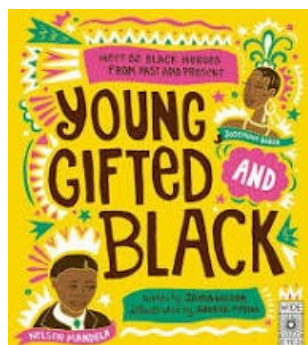

Recommended Reading List for Year 5

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

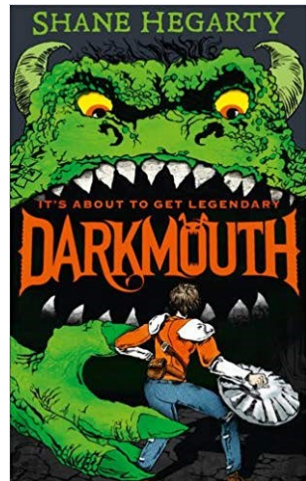

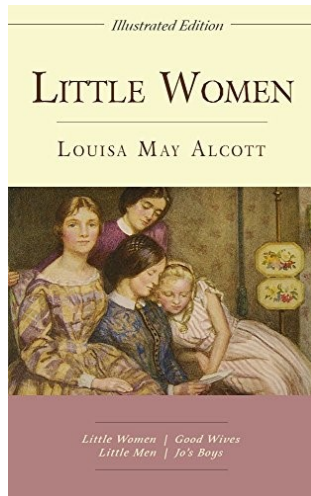

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in year 5...

Five Have Plenty of Fun - Enid Blyton

Little Women - Louisa May Alcott

Hetty Feather Series - Jacqueline Wilson

Time Travelling With a Hamster - Ross Welford

To Be a Cat - Matt Haig

Bridge to Terabithia - Katherine Paterson

The Magician's Elephant - Kate DiCamillo

Varjak Paw - S F Said

Beowulf - Michael Morpurgo

Cosmic - Frank Cottrell Boyce

The Girl of Ink and Stars - Kiran Millward Hargrave

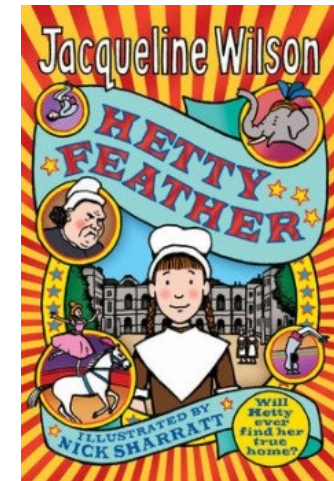

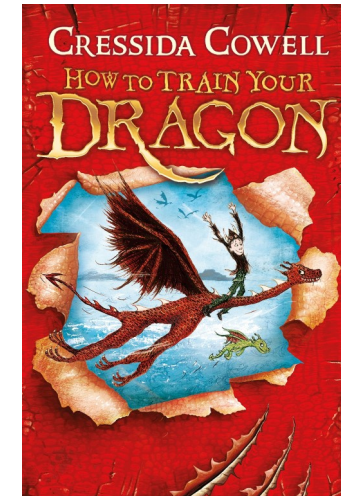

Grimm's Fairy Tales - Jakob Grimm

Stuff Happens: Ned - Andrew Daddo

Room 13 - Robert Swindells

Blackberry Blue - Jamila Gavin

Darkmouth - Shane Hegarty

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

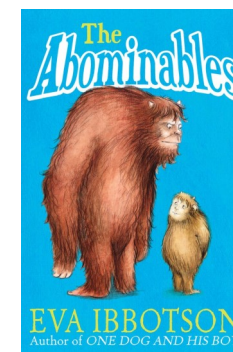

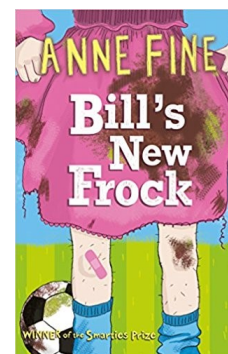

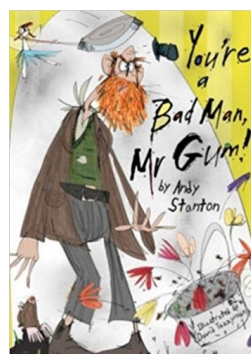

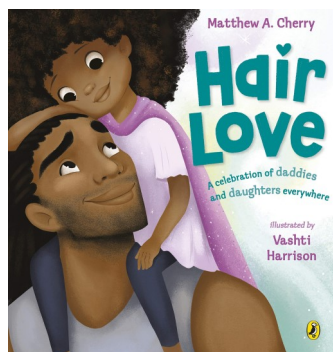

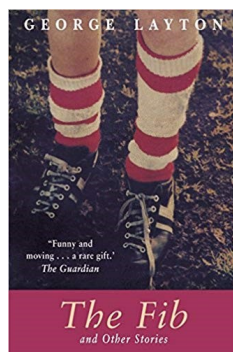

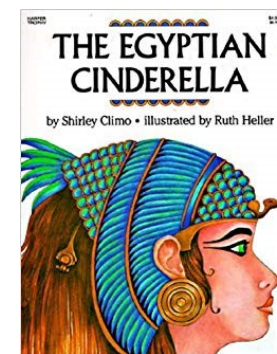

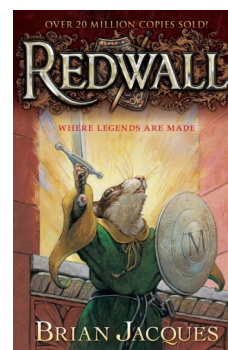

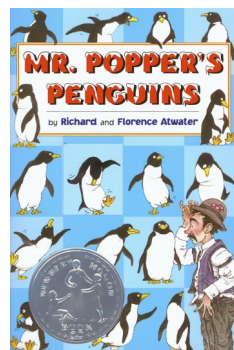

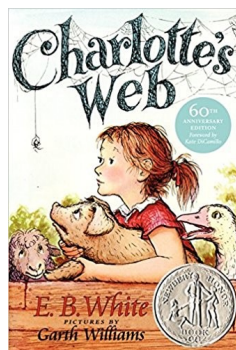

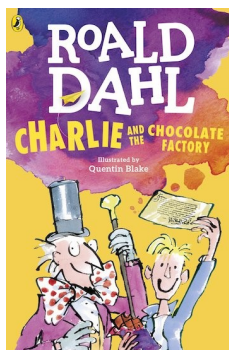

Recommended Reading List for Year 4

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

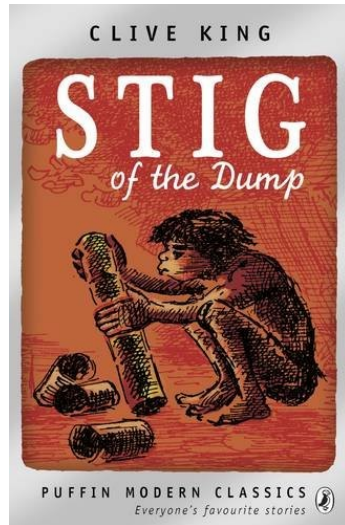

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in year 4...

Stig of the Dump - Clive King

The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane - Kate DiCamillo

The Wolf's Footprint - Susan Price

Escape from Pompeii - Christina Balit

Fly Eagle Fly - Christopher Gregorowski

Hilo-The Boy Who Crashed to Earth - Judd Winick

Anne of Green Gables - L M Montgomery

The Family Under the Bridge - Natalie Savage Carlson

The Indian in the Cupboard - Lynn Reid Banks

Perijee and Me - Ross Montgomery

Krindlekrax - Philip Ridley

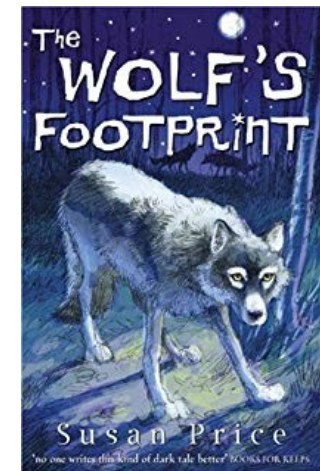

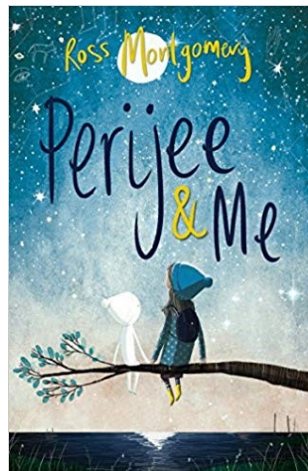

The Scarab's Secret - Nick Would

Woof - Alan Ahlberg

Little Leaders: Bold Women in Black History - Vashti Harrison

The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe - C S Lewis

The Iron Man - Ted Hughes

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

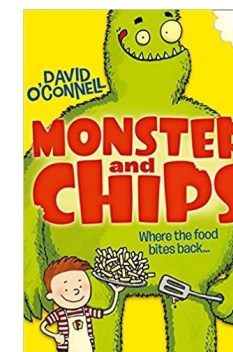

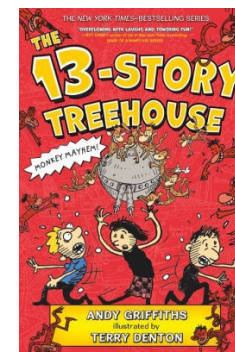

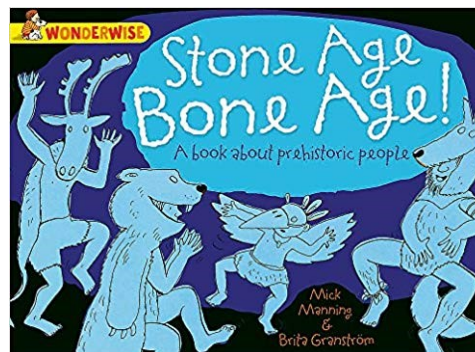

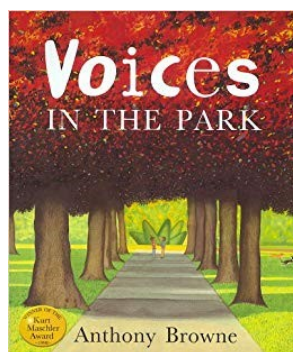

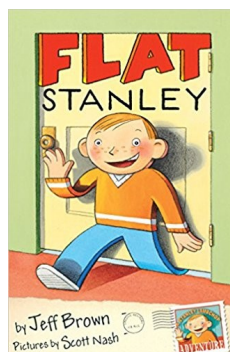

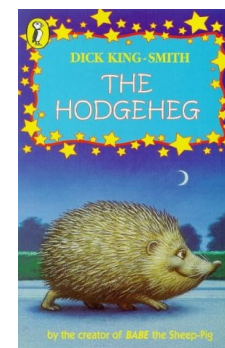

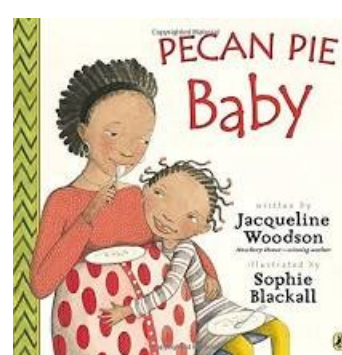

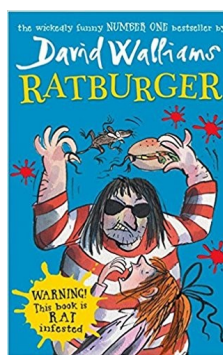

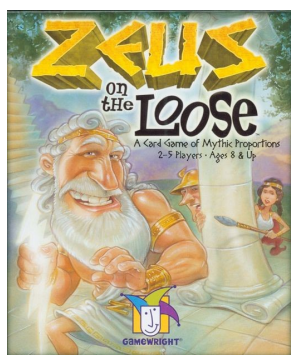

Recommended Reading List for Year 3

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

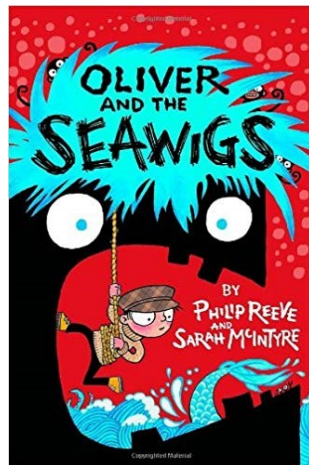

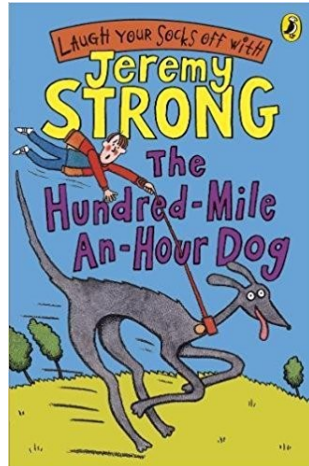

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in year 3...

The Firework Maker's Daughter - Philip Pullman

Winston of Churchill - Jean Davis Okimoto

Clean Up! - Nathan Bryon

A Treasury of Milligan - Spike Milligan

Wendell the World's Worst Wizard - J C Spencer

The Tale of Peter Rabbit - Beatrix Potter

Magic Betsy - Malorie Blackman

Oliver and the Seawigs - Phillip Reeve

Beaver Towers - Nigel Hinton

The Animals of Farthing Wood - Colin Dann

The Hundred-Mile-An-Hour-Dog - Jeremy Strong

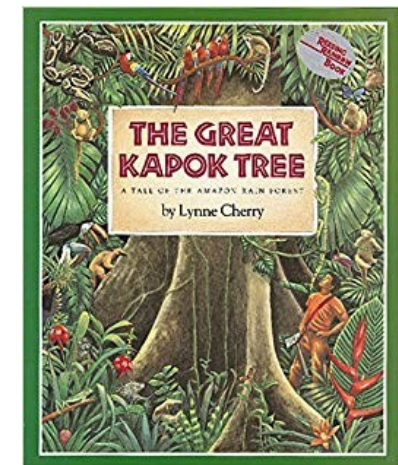

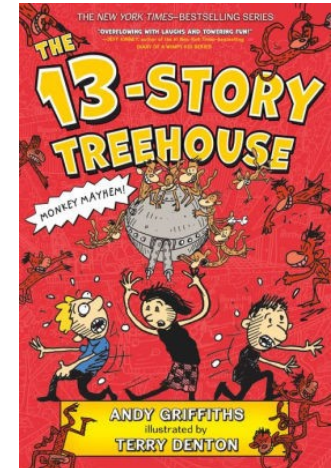

The One and Only Ivan - Katherine Applegate

The Vanishing Rainforest - Richard Platt

The Turbulent Term of Tyke Taylor - Gene Kemp

The Lion and the Unicorn - Shirley Hughes

The Great Kapok Tree - Lynne Cherry

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

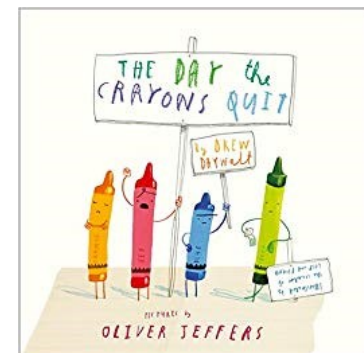

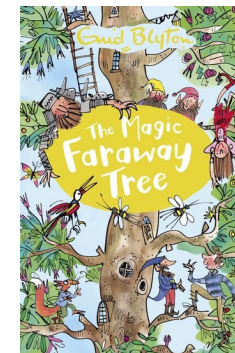

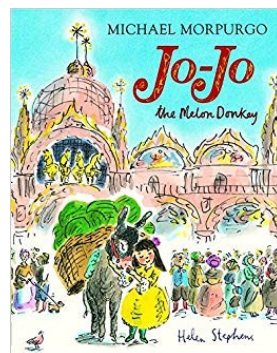

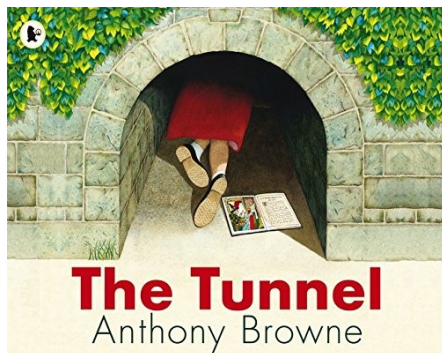

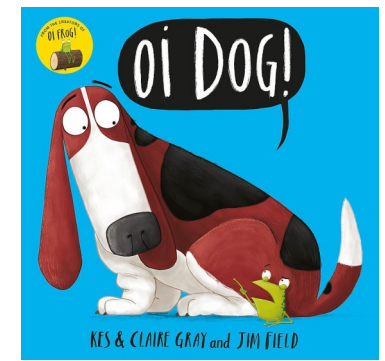

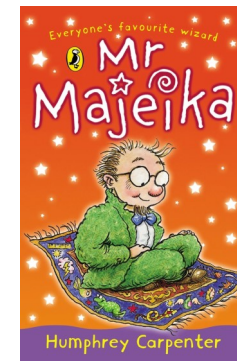

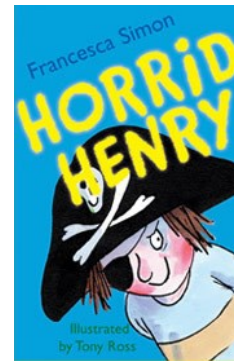

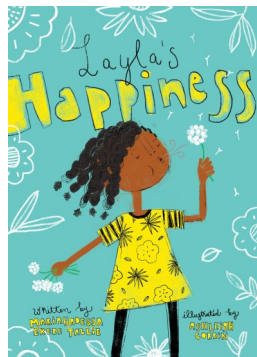

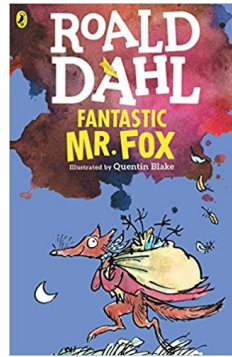

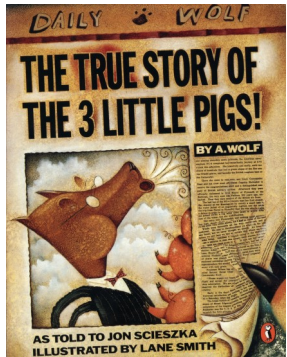

Recommended Reading List for Year 2

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

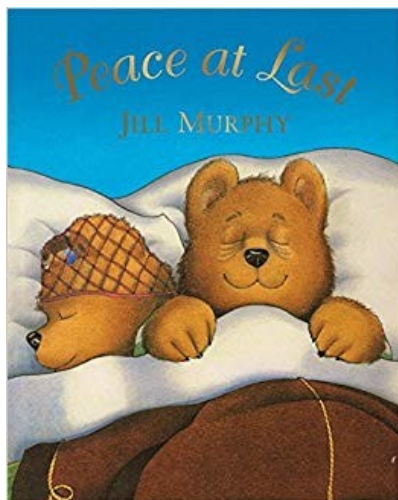

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in year 2...

Meerkat Mail - Emily Gravett

My Teacher is an Alien - Bruce Covill

The Night Pirates - Peter Harris

The Silence Seeker - Ben Morley

The Magic Finger - Roald Dahl

Traction Man - Mini Grey

The Giants and the Joneses - Julia Donaldson

The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch - Ronda Armitage

The Penguin Who Wanted to Find Out - Jill Tomlinson

Last Stop on Market Street - Matt De La Peña

Where the Wild Things Are - Maurice Sendak

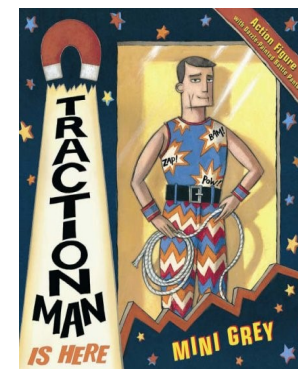

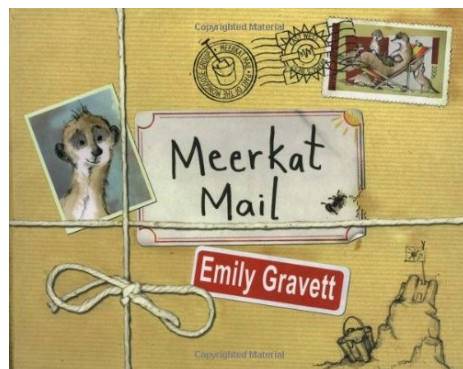

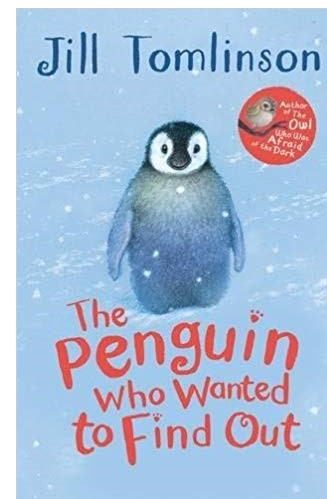

Lila and the Secret of Rain - David Conway

Bubble and Squeak - James Mayhew

Amazing Grace - Mary Hoffman

Sulwe - Lupita Nyong'o

The Huge Bag of Worries - Virginia Ironside

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

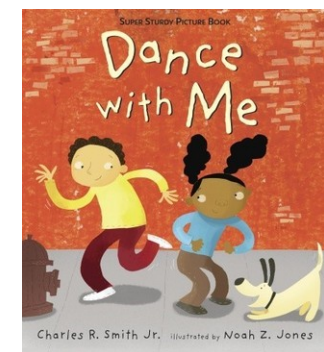

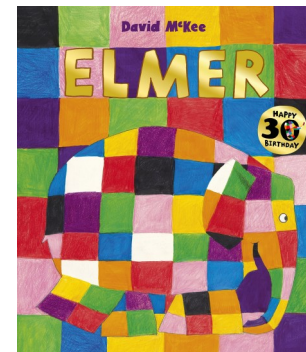

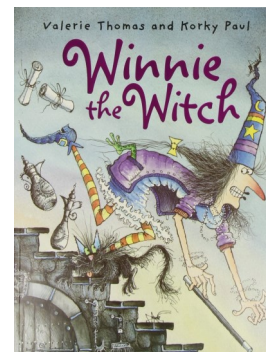

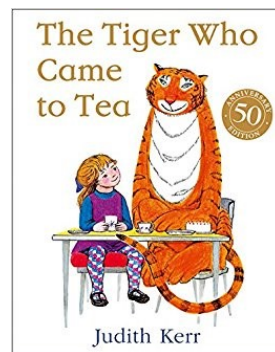

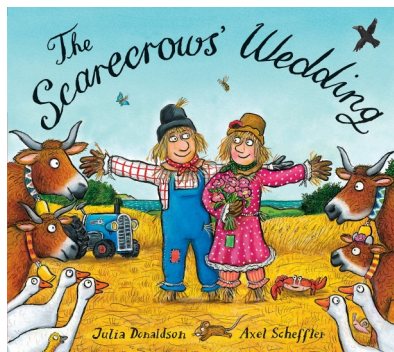

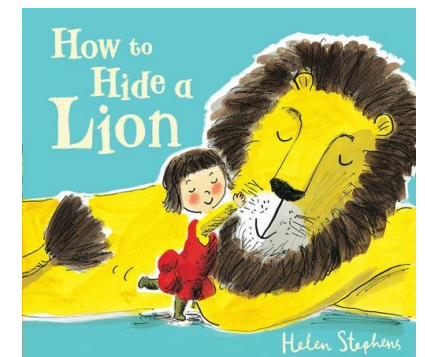

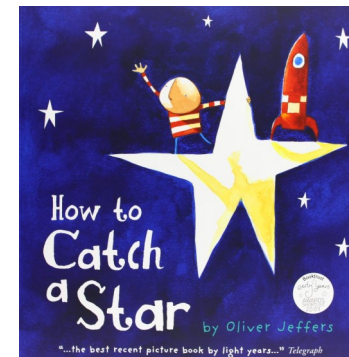

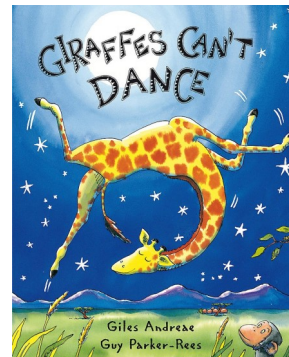

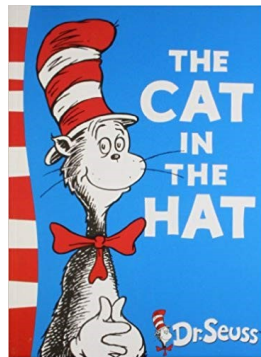

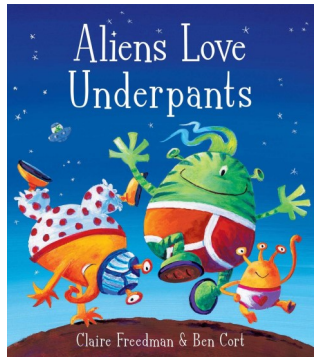

Recommended Reading List for Year 1

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

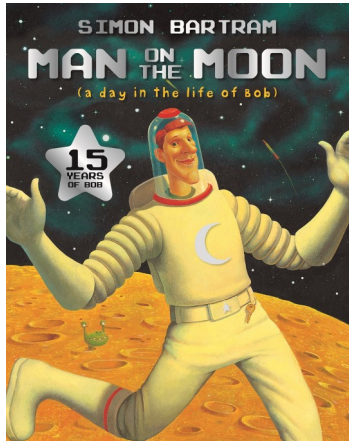

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in year 1...

The New Small Person - Lauren Child

Owl Babies - Martin Waddell

Giddy Goat - Jamie Rix

We're going on a Bear Hunt - Michael Rosen

The Blue Balloon - Mick Inkpen

The Tiny Seed - Eric Carle

Zoo - Anthony Browne

Would You Rather? - John Burningham

Click, Clack, Moo: Cows That Type - Doreen Cronin

Hairy Maclary from Donaldson's Dairy - Lynley Todd

I Will Never Not Ever Eat a Tomato - Lauren Child

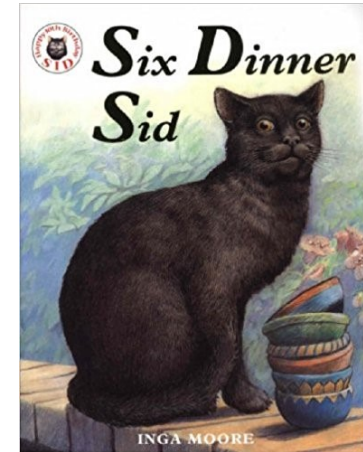

Dogger - Shirley Hughes

Sulwe - Lupita Nyong'o

Monstersaurus - Claire Freedman

Six Dinner Sid - Inga Moore

Fairytale News - Colin Hawkins

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

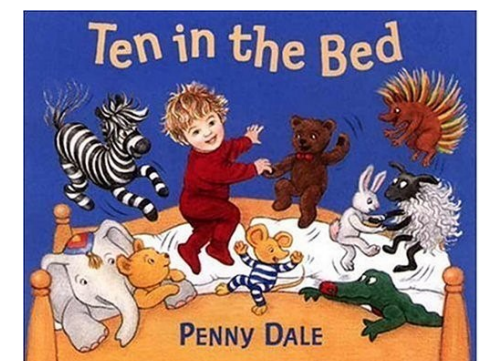

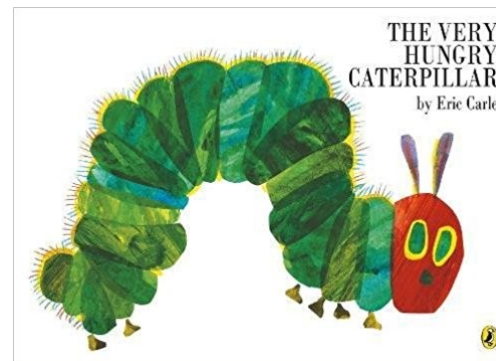

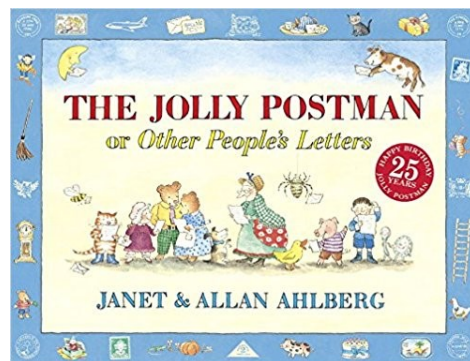

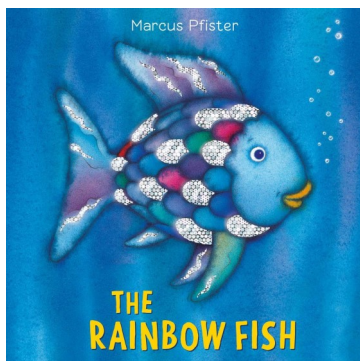

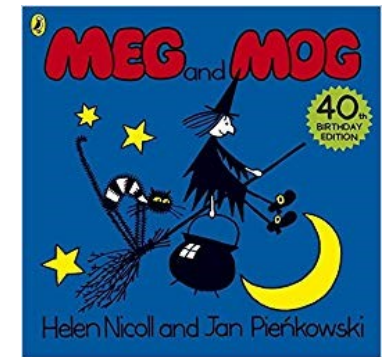

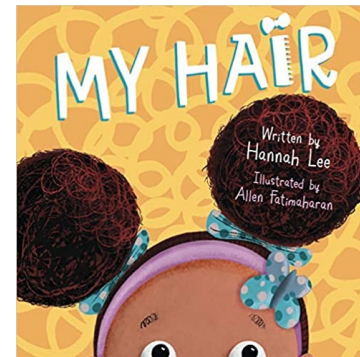

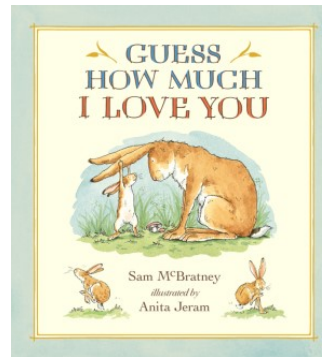

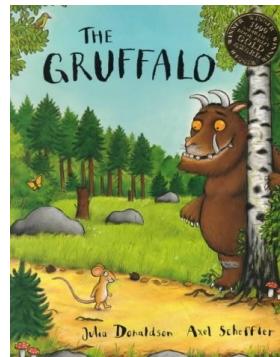

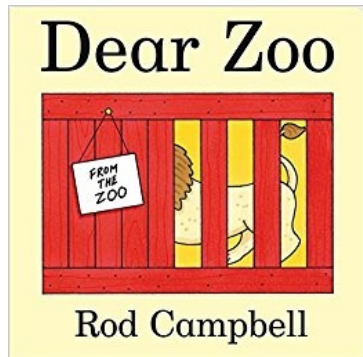

Recommended Reading List for Foundation Stage

Like anything else, reading is a skill that becomes better with practice. Reading for pleasure is critical for ensuring that the practice needed to become fluent becomes part of the learners' everyday life, and is not just seen as a classroom-based activity.

Reading for pleasure means any reading that is primarily for enjoyment. It encompasses a wide range of genres and publications, and includes both fiction and non-fiction. For example, gardening or cookery books can be read as instructional texts in order to carry out specific tasks, but can also be read purely for pleasure. Here is a selection of texts that your child may enjoy reading - either independently or shared with you.

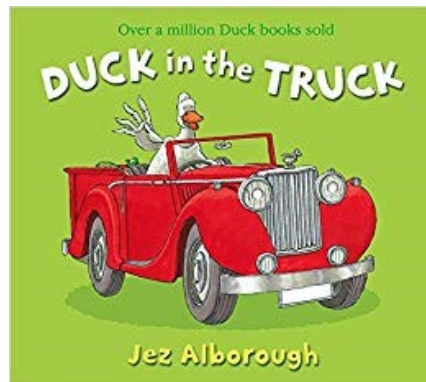

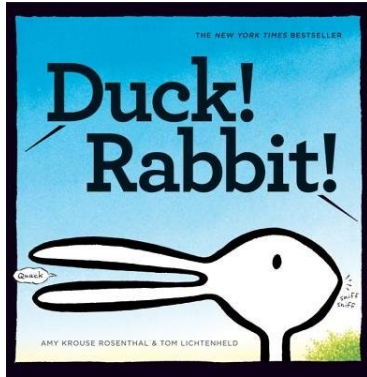

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go." -

Dr Seuss

And here's some more that you might enjoy in the Foundation Stage...

Where's Spot? - Eric Hill

Handa's Surprise - Eileen Browne

Oliver's Vegetables - Vivien French

Argh! Spider - Lydia Monks

Ten Little Dinosaurs - Mike Brownlow

Love From, Anna Hibiscus - Antinuke

There was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly - Pam Adams

Splash, Anna Hibiscus - Atinuke

Not a Box - Atoinette Portis

Commotion in the Ocean - Giles Andreae

You Choose - Nick Sharratt

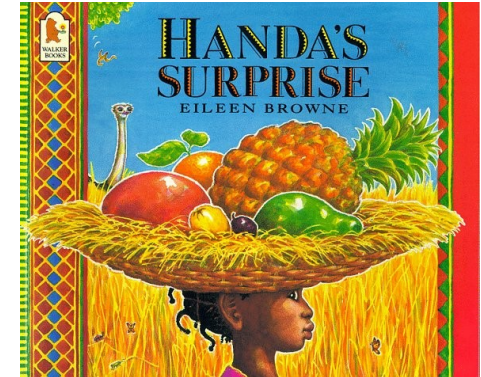

Pete the Cat - Eric Litwin

Hello, Baby Mo - Emma Shevah

Duck! Rabbit! - Amy Krouse Rosenthal

The Lion Inside - Rachel Bright

Bears Don't Eat Egg Sandwiches - Julie Fulton

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King